During the basketball season they have been a very energetic and busy group. Under the direction of Mrs. Macklin, we have had a great cheering section at all our home games.

The Pep Club has a reserved section at all of our home games. This year they have been forming either a white or blue "H" with a blue or white background. The Club consists of members from Junior High to Seniors.

School had just begun when Mrs. Helen Macklin first mentioned our annual to us. We elected our Editor-in-Chief and Associate Editor and they in turn, with the help of the sponsor, mentioned above, appointed the remainder of the staff.

We started selling annuals with hopes to have all orders in by December 2.

Everyone especially the Seniors, will long remember the hectic"picture day." This was the day the Roberts Studio photographer came for individual pictures an numerous other student activities.

We hope the owners of the annuals enjoy and appreciate the efforts of the staff. We worked hard to produce for you the history of the '53-54 school year.

HURRICANE STAFF

The furious clicking of the typewriters and giggling of the proofreaders indicate that another page of the Hurricane is being typed.

The Hurricane is sponsored by the Advanced Typing Class under Miss Yager's guidance. Every six weeks, we organize for another fun-filled printing session. Although this printing session is fun it places a great responsibility on everyone. Each typist in the Advanced Typing Class was appointed a specified job by the editor.

The newspaper informs everyone of all the achievements and gossip of Hoagland School, but of course, the main objective is to acquaint the students and parents with its forthcoming events and activities.

Class Play Scenes

The class of '54 under the able direction of Mrs. Helen Macklin, on Oct. 30 and 31, staged HILL-BILLY WEDDIN'. The hilarious comedy was a record-breaker.

In our Junior year the same class, under the same direction, gave the play FATHER WAS A HOUSE-WIFE. This three-act play was given April 17 and 18, 1953.

Both plays required a lot of time and effort of both cast and director, but they were rewarding and successful after all.

CLASSES

This is the first year we have had Drivers' Training in our school. Mr. Harwood is the teacher for this class.

On November 13, several Juniors, Seniors, Sophomores, and Mr. Bond toured the Parrot Packing Company. This is the first year that Hoagland has had a vocational Agriculture class.

The Chemistry class is under the direction of Mr. Bond. He does his best to make them understand the many different chemicals which they mix together.

The members of this class are kept very busy doing their school work and also publishing the school paper. Miss Kay Yager is their teacher.

The cafeteria is a very busy spot around noon. Every day there are 350 pupils feeding their hungry faces in our newly decorated cafeteria.

The Home Ec. class is learning to cook and sew with a semester of each. Mrs. Hoover is the Home Ec. teachen

The beginning of September in 1950,
Our group of Freshmen were really thrifty.
We started right out with a great big bang,
But it wasn't long 'til we caught the hang.

As Sophomores we thought we'd reached the height,
When we got our sweaters of blue and white.
The feeling of authority began to dawn,
As we had the Freshmen to look upon!

As Juniors we got along quite well,
While magazines and concessions we started to sell.
We rolled right along without much trouble,
And it wasn't long 'til our cash was double.

As Seniors we started out all refresh't,
With enough money in our treasury to fill a chest.
And finally in May we started on our trip,
Which we all shall remember 'til our hearts cease to skip.

CLASS PROPHECY

Strolling through the Hoagland Park, in the year of 1964, who should we meet but Colleen Smith, former member of the class of '54 and at present town gossiper. From our friendly chat, we were happy to learn of all the successes of the members of the class such as:

Ron Aspy, tired of two-timing girls, decided to turn hermit. He is living in a ghost town in Nevada.

Doris Beahrs, Queen Cat Raiser, was led to believe that cats would be cheaper to raise than children and she now has 59.

Glancing around we saw school bus driver, Wayne Bergdoll. Like father like son they say. His chief stop is the Robert Ottenweller residence. We saw Kathleen (Scheuman) Ottenweller herding her quintuplets onto the bus. Bob is coach of the Hoagland team. He is trying this year for the state title, the first time since 1954.

Down at U C L A, Mary Bohnke has struck it rich. For being voted the prettiest teacher, she won a ten-year contract with M G M.

Marlin Doctor, coach of the Bruins, has been doing a fine coaching job, but was very disappointed about losing the Rose Bowl game to his cousin,Verle, coach of the Indiana Hoosiers.

The last that Colleen heard, Regina Dornseif was instructing at Arthur Murray's. For a while, she was having quite a time teaching Ed Bradtmueller, "Featherfeet", the latest steps in ballet.

Down in ole Kentucky, Lynn Brown operates a general store. His neighbor, Ed Krauss, is composing his fifth symphony in C flat.

As everyone knows, Elsie Flora is campaign manager for the charming candidate, Anita Mailand, for the first lady president of the U. S. If Anita is elected she has promised Arnold Scheumann that he will be her front door butler.

Ruthie Sorg, our informant told us, is doing very well with her charm school. A steady customer is Sweet Sue Blaising, but her most recent customer is Shirley Sprague, who is preparing todouble for Marilyn Monroe, in Hollywood.

Just at that time, we were almost knocked off the park bench by a Great Dane, being chased by Robert Renninger, city dog-catcher in a city-wide---------- Dragnet!

Don "Short-Stuff" Frane, is playing for the Pistons. He is allowed to stand on a chair for his free throws.

Neil Barclay was recently named "Speed King" of the South Anthony Speedway, with much credit given to his ablest mechanic, Vera Stotlar.

Colleen told us of Monsieur Dallas Fredericks' new masterpiece, which is on display at the Hoagland Art Gallery. It was done in Paris, where Dallas is now doing a new one called "The Nose".

Carl Hoffman is still traveling about with his "Messy Breakdown Harris", entering all of the tractor-pulling contests.

Joan Diemer is busy designing a gown for Lucile Ratliff, who is to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, next month.

Going on down the lane, we were shocked to see Killer Kenny Koeneman being thrown out of an exclusive restaurant owned by Gerald and Russell Sorg, by Harold Kleine, the head bouncer.

Professor Richard Stoppenhagen has found a job on T V. He draws portraits on the "Kiddie Hour". Neal Sheehan is doing very nicely in T V work too. He stars on the Red Buttons Show.

Colleen's next words were drowned out by some weird noises which rose and fell in the afternoon sunshine air. Above the din, she explained the noises were being made by Shirley Busick. She is still trying to teach her dog to play the trombone.

Walking back to our starting point, we noticed Margaret Jamison, the owner of a Used Car Lot, trying to sell her worn out '53 Mercury to Joe Minnich, who is a traveling salesman for the No-Doze Pill Factory, guaranteed to keep Seniors awake even during classes.

As we passed by the ball diamond in the park we heard a familiar voice and found it to be none other than Marilyn Horman coaching a group of girls in her favorite sport of softball.

As we were leaving the park, we met Wilma Grotrian who was relaxing during her lunch hour in the warm sunshine. She told us she was the private secretary of her wealthy and prosperous employer, Dick Pyle.

We left Hoagland, satisfied that all was well with the members of the Class of 1954.

CLASS HISTORY

Our class began its twelve years of schooling in 1942. Those who went through all twelve grades at Hoagland are: Lucile Ratliff, Ronald Aspy, Lynn Brown, Elsie Flora, Shirley Sprague, Dallas Frederick, Beverly Felt, Shirley Busick.

We began our high school career with 49 members, the largest in the history of the school. Lowell Voirol was elected president, Regina Dornseif, vice president; Shirley Sprague, secretary; Bob Ottenweller, treasurer; and Miss Yager served as class sponsor. High school was a new experience, but will be remembered for many years.

Shirley Sprague served as hostess to our first class party, while the second one was held in the school cafeteria. The most memorable event of the school year was initiation day.

In the second year of our high school life Miss Yager served as sponsor while Neal Sheehan was elected president; Colleen Smith, vice president; Ruthanne Sorg, secretary; and Dick Stoppenhagen, treasurer. Our class was well represented in extra curricular activities. We had members in the band, glee club, and booster club. We were also represented by five majorettes: Regina Dornseif, Ruthanne Sorg, Sue Blaising, Shirley Sprague, Lucile Ratliff, and the drum major, Edward Krauss.

The most important event of our Sophomore year was the receiving of our class sweaters. We were very proud of them and felt they were superior to all others. Our first class party of the year was held at the home of Neal Sheehan and the second at the home of Ed Nordyke.

As Juniors we had Mr. Gideon for our class sponsor and elected Ron Aspy as president, Lynn Brown as vice president, Ed Krauss as treasurer, and Regina Dornseif as secretary.

This year we started raising funds for our trip to Washington D. C. and New York by sponsoring the class play "Father Was A Housewife" and having a magazine campaign. We broke all previous records by selling the most magazines. We sold concessions several times.

Another outstanding event of this year was receiving our class rings. Planning of the Junior-Senior Banquet was a new experience and a big task.

This year we did not have class parties as previously but had two parties at school which all the high school classes attended.

The final lapse of our big school days was organized as follows: Neal Sheehan, president; Ed Krauss, vice president: Dick Stoppenhagen, treasurer; and Wilma Grotrian, secretary. Mr. Gideon served as our class sponsor with Mr. Good as the assistant.

Shortly after school started the Senior Class pictures were taken, we ordered our invitations and our name cards. Our class party was held at the home of Marilyn Hormann, which consisted principally of a hayride.

During our last year we had many projects to increase our funds for our trip to Washington D. C. and New York. These included the class play "Hillbilly Weddin'", scrap drives, bake sales, paper drives, selling turkeys for Blaising's Turkey Farm, selling Christmas cards, selling candy, Senior dance, selling concessions, and many others. Other events to take place during the year are the class tournament, Junior-Senior Banquet, Recognition day, graduation activities, and a trip to Washington D. C. and New York.

We are sure our nigh school days at Hoagland will be a lasting memory to each and every member of our class.

SCHOOL BOARD

Clarence Lybarger, President

Clarence Conrad

Cecil Gottschalk

David Perry, Secretary

Fred Berning, Treasurer

Although the students seldom see the members of the School Board, we know that this group is very busy trying to make this a better and more comfortable school term.

The school Board was organized in June 1950, the year Madison and Marion Townships consolidated. The first Board consisted of Mr. C. Bobilya and Mr. A. Hartman, the Trustees of the respective townships, Mr. C. Conrad, Mr. R. Flora, Mr. C. Lybarger the elected members.

Many improvements have been made since the organization of this board. Two of the outstanding ones are the new wing for the grade school and the shop classes,and the remodeling of the cafeteria, the kitchen and the Home Ec.room. The school was also made more attractive by the newly painted walls, and the installation of the new desks, new water fountains and new window shades.
